OTHER INFORMATION

Are you familiar with the statutes, rules and practice governing alternative dispute resolution in the District of South Carolina? yes no

Other relevant experience or skills or other information you would like considered in connection with this application:

As of September 1, 2015, I have been certified as a Circuit Court Mediator in South Carolina. While I have not mediated any cases to date, I believe because of my professional experience in state and federal government, I am well qualified to understand the issues relating to education law and policy, consumer products, products liability, and disputes involving state and federal government on these topics. I have also had considerable experience in negotiating disputes involving education policy, consumer product regulation, and to some degree, environmental law issues. To gain experience as a federal district court mediator, I would co-mediate cases with an experience mediator in South Carolina.

GLOBAL ADVOCATE FOR CHILDREN & FAMILIES: CHAMPION IN CONSUMER PRODUCT SAFETY, EDUCATION POLICY & GOVERNANCE

BUILDING PARTNERSHIPS, DRIVING DEVELOPMENT, SPONSORING CHANGE

Inspiring and purpose-driven attorney, educator and public servant known for changing the global conversation in areas of product safety compliance, risk prevention, and education reform. Adept in leveraging experiences in public policy, education, child advocacy, women's issues, public-private partnerships, and regulatory reform and compliance to enable the expansion of equality and opportunities for all.

Sponsors the development of policies and messages for critical issues including product safety, social responsibility, and education. Solid conceptual and analytical thinking combined with strong demonstration of business acumen, political nuance, and international perspective.

Effective in high-profile roles and accomplished in working with government officials, legislators, CEO's, Boards, and strategic partners. Known as an approachable and participative leader with expertise in navigating sensitive matters, developing multisector partnerships, and fostering alignment and engagement.

LEADERSHIP HIGHLIGHTS

Global Engagement

As Chairman of the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission, established the first overseas office in Beijing and created an Internet Surveillance Unit to strengthen marketplace surveillance of retail and Internet sites to identify sellers offering banned, recalled, or dangerous products. As part of five-year strategic plan, created the Office of Education, Global Outreach, and Small Business Ombudsman to coordinate and provide engagement and cooperation with domestic and international manufacturers, retailers, resellers, small businesses, and foreign governments regarding product safety.

Education Leadership

Attained national recognition for student academic proficiency and achievement with top rankings in public education as South Carolina's State Superintendent of Education. Independent national studies by Fordham Foundation, Princeton Review, Large-Scale Assessment Study, Northwest Evaluation Association, Quality Counts and Education Next all reported South Carolina's education standards as among the most rigorous in the nation. Performance on the National Assessment of Education Process showed top rankings for State improvement on Math grade 4 as #1 in nation; Math grade 8 at #1; Science grade 4 at #1; and Science grade 8 at #3 in the nation.

Public-Private Partnership

Supervised an innovative public-private collaboration to lower the risk of concussions and other traumatic brain injury in youth football. The resulting "Youth Football Brain Safety" initiative involved major companies that manufacture or recondition football helmets and industry associations and organizations including the Sporting Goods Manufacturing Association, National Athletic Equipment Reconditioning Association, National Football League, National Football League Players Association, USA Football, National Collegiate Athletic Association and Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. The partnership attracted private funding and enabled football programs for economically disadvantaged youth to receive newer and properly maintained helmets.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

NELSON MULLIN RILEY & SCARBOROUGH LLP, Columbia, SC and Washington, D.C. 2013 – Present

Partner, Consumer Product Safety, Risk Prevention and Regulatory Practice Group

- Advises clients on matters involving the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) and other regulatory bodies, including risk assessment and management, internal compliance and education programs, regulatory oversight, product reporting, recalls, and litigation.
- Evaluates client products to ensure compliance with applicable consumer product safety requirements to protect a manufacturer's brand and reduce its exposure to civil or criminal fines and penalties.
- Advises manufacturers on product safety crises, government investigations, reporting issues, corrective action plans, and voluntary and involuntary recalls, including the CPSC's Fast Track Recall Program.
- Advises manufacturers and retailers on their internal compliance systems, developing integrated internal compliance and data management programs to avoid civil penalties for failure to timely report substantial product hazards to the CPSC.
- Counsels in the area of education policy law assisting state and national education nonprofit organizations and corporations on issues related to early childhood education, educator executive leadership, teacher quality and evaluation, student assessment, curriculum, and improvement of student performance.

U.S. CONSUMER PRODUCT SAFETY COMMISSION, Washington, D.C. 2009 – 2013

Chairman

- Appointed by the President and led the independent federal regulatory agency responsible for protecting people from unreasonable risks of injury or harm from consumer products.
- Oversaw the full implementation of the Consumer Product Safety Improvement Act of 2008, transforming the CPSC into a recognized global leader in consumer product safety.
- Traveled across the U.S. and to China, Vietnam, Singapore, Hong Kong, Korea, Canada, Belgium, Australia, Brazil, and Mexico to meet with regulators and promote safety and best manufacturing practices to the source of domestically and foreign made consumer products.
- Established and executed five-year strategic plan to make the agency more accessible and transparent, enforce fairly and firmly all safety laws and regulations, focus on injury prevention, and make education and advocacy a priority.
- Testified before Congressional committees and presented to European Parliament regarding consumer protection and product safety issues; served as lead spokesperson for the largest media and education campaign in the agency's history related to pool drowning and drain entrapment.
- Led milestone initiatives: establishing the strongest crib safety standards in the world; lowest lead limits for children's products in the world; limits on use of certain phthalates in toys and child care articles; mandatory standards for toys, toxic metals, and juvenile products; and continuous testing of children's products by independent third-party laboratories.
- Appeared on The TODAY Show, CBS Early Show, Good Morning America, CNN, Bloomberg TV, CNBC Asia and C-Span; quoted in the New York Times, Washington Post, USA Today, Chicago Tribune, Huffington Post, Associated Press and Reuters; and spoke on network radio to inform the public about product recalls, safety warnings, emerging hazards, and prevention initiatives.
