Robert W. Hassold, Jr.

Membership and positions held in bar, ADR and professional associations:

S. C. Bar (Chairman, Alternative Dispute Resolution Section 1994 - 1995; Chairman, Construction Law Committee 1992 - 1995), S. C. Supreme Court Joint Commission on ADR (Chairman, Qualifications and Certification Committee 1994 - 1995), Greenville County Bar (Chairman, 1993 Settlement Week), American Bar Association (Forum Committee on the Construction Industry, Public Contracts, TIPS and Dispute Resolution Sections), American Arbitration Association National Panel of Arbitrators and Mediators (Blue Ribbon Panel, South Carolina Advisory Council), DART (Dispute Avoidance and Resolution Task Force), SPIDR (Society of Professionals in Dispute Resolution), SCCMADR (South Carolina Council on Mediation and Alternative Dispute Resolution)

Summarize legal experience:

Early in my legal career I handled numerous personal injury and workers' compensation cases, together with construction and commercial litigation. Since 1983 I have primarily concentrated in construction and commercial cases, as well as the drafting of contracts. Work experience the last five years has generally been in the area of contracts, arbitration, mediation and litigation of commercial matters. I also teach a graduate-level course at Clemson University entitled Team Approach: Reducing Adversarial Relationships in Construction.

Publications:

I have written articles and lectured on numerous occasions on construction-related and ADR topics. These articles and lectures have been primarily associated with seminars and conventions; however, a Bulletin on Partnering that I co-authored for the American Subcontractors Association is scheduled for publication sometime in early 1996.

Other relevant experience or skills:

I have also acted as an arbitrator through the American Arbitration Association and through private referrals, primarily in the construction and commercial areas. Some of these have been large, complex cases, including one large, complex construction case held in Pittsburgh between a U.S. joint venture and a French design firm, governed by the American Arbitration Association's International Arbitration Rules.
